Parental consents:

As part of the EYFS (Early years foundation stage curriculum) which we follow, the staff of Skidby Pre-School observe and record your child’s development throughout their time in the setting. We use the observations to record development under the EYFS profile. As extra evidence to record development we take photos of the children taking part in the activity or game.
For this to happen we would need parental consent for the following:

Taking of photos for child development profiles – Yes/No (Delete)

Signed.....

Writing child observations for child development profile – Yes/No (Delete)

Signed.....

Keeping development profiles for your child – Yes/No (Delete)

Signed.....

Summer Term

During the summer months it is essential that your child has sun cream applied to them on a daily basis before you leave them at the setting. If your child is staying for the full day, please ensure they have spare sun cream in their bag clearly labelled with their name. This is very important due to allergies within the setting. Staff will help your child to apply their sun cream, however we will require your consent to do so.

Do you give consent to the staff of the setting to apply sun cream to your child? Yes/no (Delete)

Signed.....

Disclaimer:

Skidby Pre School do not accept responsibility for damage to children’s clothing/footwear whilst at the setting. Activities will include messy play, (paint, glue etc) and water and sand play, all of which could be indoors or outdoors as part of the EYFS curriculum. Aprons are provided for messy and water play, but we do respectfully ask that parents/carers bring the children in sensible clothing.

Please complete the disclaimer below:

Parent(s)/carers of.....(child’s name) accept responsibility of clothing/footwear whilst attending the setting

General Data Protection Regulations Policy

On the 25th May 2018 the General Data Protection Regulation will come into effect and become law which will impact all business including the Early Years Sector. As a Pre-School setting we must be compliant with all new legislation that comes into force and we must meet the new requirements. It is a European law and includes the UK; this will remain in place even once we leave the EU.

The GDPR has been brought into reflect more modern times including the electronic process we use to collect and store data. It is also to give individuals greater control over their own personal data. However it is not just for those who use modern technology, the law affects any business which uses a highly structured filing system - in short any setting who needs to process and store away personal data as part of their responsibilities. Personal data includes any data which can identify a person including but not limited to; names, addresses, invoices, date of birth and email addresses.

GDPR uses two terms, the controller and the processor. The controller determines the purpose and the means of personal data. The processor processes data on behalf of the controller. As a Pre-School setting we will always be one or both of these.

The GDPR Principles are as follows:

- 1 Processed lawfully, fairly, and in a transparent manner.
- 2 Collected for specified, explicit and legitimate purposes.
- 3 Adequate, relevant and is limited to what is necessary.
- 4 Accurate and where necessary kept up to date.
- 5 Retained only for as long as necessary.
- 6 Processed in an appropriate manner to maintain security.

Lawfulness of Processing Data:

- 1 Consent of the data subject.
- 2 Processing is necessary for the performance of a contract with the data subject.
- 3 Processing is necessary for the compliance with a legal obligation.
- 4 Processing is necessary to protect the vital interests of the data subject.
- 5 Processing is necessary in the public interest or the controller has official authority.
- 6 Processing is necessary for the purposes and legitimate interests pursued by the controller or a third party.

Consent:

- 1 All consent to collect or store data must be freely given.
- 2 It should be unambiguous.
- 3 Consent can be withdrawn at any time.
- 4 Consent must now be freely given so pre ticked boxes will no longer be used; in short people must now be able to opt in rather than opt out.
- 5 As a Pre-School setting we are already bound by the regulations set by the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) and pay our yearly fee to ensure all our data is protected by the laws of the country.

Retention Periods

This remains unaffected by the GDPR, and we must continue to store personal data for the specified length of time. We only hold what is absolutely by law required to keep, if we have other information you as the parents have the right to request it or request for it to be destroyed. Retention periods change so please get in touch if you would like to know what the current regulations are regarding retention of personal data. We also must ensure we keep up to date with the latest retention regulations.

Any Data we collect must fall into one of the 6 Lawfulness of Processing Data categories. If it does not we can ask you for explicit consent, which you can withdraw from at any time. Of course there will be some Acts which we must adhere to over and above GDPR; one example of this is the Children's Act.

Data Breaches

We will be obligated to notify the ICO of a data breach within 72 hours of becoming aware of the breach. We understand the huge fines in place for failing to follow correct procedures for a breach in data.

Please see separate Privacy Notice.
